

The BIG STUFF February Prompt

February is full of hearts, valentines and romance...but the loves of our lives go much deeper than that. Take a few minutes and think about the things that you are passionate about. What few things could you boil your daily existence down to – if you had to? These are the things that we are going to journal about this month. I started with a list: family, friends, faith, learning, teaching, scrapbooking (of course) , & reading. Then I wrote a letter to myself reminding me what I wanted to do this year regarding these loves of mine.

Stack 'em UP!

I love the new trend that has us piling our embellishments one on top of the other. You can use all kinds of things...buttons on buttons, flowers on top of flowers, letters on top of chipboard – and like I used here...ghost shapes on top of flowers attached with brads.

Try it for yourself...I think you will find it more than a bit addicting!

Happy Valentine's Day

The Big Stuff Quote

Because I was focusing on love this month – I couldn't think of any greater love than God's...
"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that whoever believes in Him shall not die but have everlasting life." John 3:16
